Notes for Elisabeth Baetzel:

The couple were both still living as of 1927 in Auburn, New York. Her 1930 Census record lists her marital status as widowed. In 1940 she is living with another household in Rochester. The Census form says M(arried) but with what may be a question mark.

Notes for Charles A. Schluter:

Conflicting data are reported about his birthdate and parents. I lean toward this 1860 date but other sources say 1872. There was another Charles Schluter who lived in New York City and I think the two of them are confused. He and Elisabeth may have been divorced by 1930--at least there was a Charles Schluter living in Green Bay by then who was born in New York but listed as divorced. Our Charles Schluter is, I think, buried in the same cemetery as Elisabeth though not together. My best guess is that they did separate or divorce though both lived very long lives.
